

The Swindon Business Breakfast

Friday 7th April 2017

Swindon Marriott - Swindon

Topic: Business and Education: Achieving together

Speaker: Michelle Smith, Chief Executive Officer, Education Business Partnership

This month's business breakfast will be all about exploring the divide between the education and business sectors and the different ways to bridge the gap.

It can often feel like the two 'sides' speak different languages and work towards different objectives and priorities. In this session we will be discussing why this might be and looking at possible ways to successfully align work across the sectors to achieve mutually beneficial outcomes.

The breakfast will also touch on the future talent implications of Brexit and the Apprenticeship Levy.
