Due to popular demand the accredited Thames Valley Chamber of Commerce will be hosting its next membership orientation breakfast briefing.

The event, which is open to all new members and new employees of existing members, provides the perfect opportunity for attendees to learn about membership, meet core members of the Chamber team and gain valuable insight into the substantial benefits that are part of the annual subscription package.

We will start with a welcome from the TVCCG Chief Executive, Paul Britton, followed by a presentation from Gavin Spencer, Head of Member Services who will highlight the many ways that you can maximise your membership.
