Film, Television and Audio Visual: Thames Valley – the UK's Creative Heart
Friday 18th March 2022

Chris Berry

Director - Real Estate Advisory
Lambert Smith Hampton

“Chris is widely acknowledged as the leading property professional active in the creative industries sector, uniquely placed within the UK market with an unrivalled track record alongside exceptional industry contacts. Chris has achieved significant market penetration for a varying high profile client base in respect of both real estate and production industry stakeholders.

With a background in providing occupier services for UK TV corporates including the BBC and ITV, Chris now heads the LSH Media Team; the primary property advisor providing specialist consultancy and transactional advisory services to the sector. The LSH Media Team dominance of the creative industries real estate sector is such that they have been involved in almost every studio related transaction in recent years and act as the conduit between the production industry and real estate stakeholders.”
