“

What an amazing, truly inspiring and informative day it was at Windsor Castle. I now understand the Debates' true power and influence – it was wonderful to have the space, time and intellectual stimulus to listen, learn, assimilate and thoroughly enjoy the company of such accomplished, vibrant, good humoured people.

About Windsor Debates

Held within the unique surroundings of Windsor Castle, Windsor Debates gives businesses the exclusive opportunity to help shape and frame the Chamber's strategic policy direction and wider programme of activity, both on a regional and global scale. Through our programme of work, we connect the most influential business leaders in the Thames Valley, creating real change and influencing the agenda to ensure the region remains a great place to do business.

This bi-annual event, where "Chatham House Rules" are applied, creates space and, more importantly, time for invited guests to consider, reflect and grapple with a range of significant topics. Space and time for our guests to discuss, argue cogently and listen carefully. Space and time for people to disagree civilly, find common ground, test each other's intellectual position, perhaps even reach consensus.

Attendees

Attendees are largely drawn from our senior membership tier which includes FTSE 100 and FTSE 250 entities; domestic and foreign-owned companies; representatives from the third sector; other business leaders from across our region and those who work in our world leading academic institutions.

A triumph of a day – such good topics and discussion, surrounded by great people.

Programme Overview

Daytime Debate

Held in the historic Vicars' Hall, within of the private grounds of Windsor Castle, a truly unique venue made available to us by the vision and foresight of the late HRH Prince Philip. Built in the year of the battle of Agincourt in 1415, the Vicars' Hall was the venue for Shakespeare's first performance of the Merry Wives of Windsor in front of Queen Elizabeth 1st at the Garter Feast on April 23, 1597.

Evening Reception

Guests are invited to attend Evensong in St. George's Chapel, followed by a Champagne Reception in the Dean's Cloister. The Evening Dinner takes place in The Vicars' Hall and concludes with a private tour of St George's Chapel, guided by Military Knights.
