

Windsor Debates

HEALTH AND LIFE SCIENCES

Friday 21st March 2025

Dr Christoph Zehendner is a GMC-registered physician and studied Medicine in Germany (Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz) and UK (University College London). Before joining Boehringer Ingelheim in 2017, he practiced physiology and cardiology and was a Lecturer in Molecular Medicine at the Goethe University in Frankfurt.

During his time at Boehringer Ingelheim, Christoph held various leadership positions in Medical Affairs at the company's global headquarters in Germany, before moving to join the UK & Ireland team as Medical Director in 2022.

His professional interests lie in sustainable healthcare and working in partnership with health systems to drive collaboration and ensure solutions and clinical development meet the unmet medical needs of both patients and customers.

DR CHRISTOPH ZEHENDNER

Medical Director

Boehringer Ingelheim UK & Ireland

