

Windsor Debates

HEALTH AND LIFE SCIENCES

Friday 21st March 2025

Laura Holland is Director of Strategic Marketing at the Rosalind Franklin Institute. She has been with the organisation since its conception. Prior to this, she was Engagement Manager at Diamond Light Source for eleven years, where she led public engagement and postgraduate engagement programmes.

Laura holds a BSc in Cell Biology from the University of Durham. She also holds a Research Masters in Medical and Molecular Bioscience, from the University of Newcastle upon Tyne, and a PGDip in Science Communication from The University of the West of England, which she completed alongside her work at the Diamond Light Source.

LAURA HOLLAND

Director of Strategic Marketing

Rosalind Franklin Institute

