Steven Lynch MBE is the Director of International Trade at the British Chambers of Commerce. He was awarded an MBE in His Majesty the King's 2024 New Year Honours List for services to the British business community in China.

Steven previously served as Managing Director of the British Chamber of Commerce in China and was the Director and co-host of the Beijing to Britain podcast, exploring UK-China trade and policy. He also chaired the Institute of Directors China Group. After 12 years living and working in Beijing, Steven recently returned to the UK, bringing deep expertise in international relations, public policy, and strategic government engagement.

A dynamic and trusted leader, he has worked across government and the private sector to build commercial partnerships, navigate geopolitical risk, and champion UK business interests overseas. Steven holds an MSc in Business Strategy from Warwick Business School.
