Overview

TVCC is delighted to welcome Sarah Green, MP to our Political Working Lunch.

Since entering Parliament in 2021, Sarah Green has served on the House of Commons Public Accounts Committee, contributing to scrutiny of government spending and delivery. She has also held Liberal Democrat frontbench roles, including spokesperson responsibilities for International Trade and for Wales.

Our Political Working Lunches regularly feature current and former MPs and Ministers, offering the business community valuable insights into Westminster, public policy and the political landscape shaping the Thames Valley.
