

Navigating Global Growth

Export Finance Unlocked in partnership with UK Export Finance (UKEF)

Wednesday 11 March 2026 | 9:30am – 12:30pm

Venue: Green Park Conference Centre

Address: 100 Longwater Avenue, Green Park, Reading, RG2 6GP

We are delighted to invite you to an exclusive roundtable, Navigating Global Growth: Export Finance Unlocked, hosted by Thames Valley Chamber of Commerce in partnership with UK Export Finance (UKEF).

As global trading conditions evolve and established UK exporters continue to expand and grow their export markets, senior business leaders must ensure they have access to the finance and capital solutions that enable growth and competitiveness on the global stage. This private session will bring together a select group of CEOs, Finance Directors, and Senior decision-makers from across sectors to exchange insights, share experiences, and explore practical ways to in which export finance can accelerate your growth and build export resilience.

Discussion will focus on:

- Trade outlook and your export plans – Identifying opportunities, barriers and risks to your international trade prospects and how UKEF and Thames Valley Chamber can help you pursue strategic growth.
- Export finance as a growth enabler –optimising your use of finance at all stages of your export journey to grow, improve competitiveness, and enable the pursuit of larger contracts with confidence.
- De-risking through practical support –how UKEF helps UK exporters protect cash flow, manage exposure, and pursue new markets.
- If your business is already trading internationally and you're thinking about the next step — whether it's entering new markets, managing risk, or scaling sustainably, this conversation is designed with you in mind.

It's an invitation-only session, and we'd be delighted to have your voice in the room.

To confirm your place, please email trade@tvchamber.co.uk

Looking forward to welcoming you and hearing your perspective.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Britton
CEO, Thames Valley Chamber of Commerce
